

Elizabeth Borgwardt

Department of History * Washington University in St Louis
One Brookings Drive * St Louis * MO * 63130
eborgwar@artsci.wustl.edu * Tel: 001-650-380-0081

CURRICULUM VITAE

Updated September 2012

Current Employment

Washington University in St. Louis, Associate Professor of History; Associate Professor of Law. Research and course offerings in Human Rights; History of International Law; Law & Political Theory; Comparative Constitutional History; co-Director of new International Relations concentration (approval pending); Advisor to Legal Studies Program, since 2006

Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies, U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum Archives, Washington DC, Cummings Foundation Fellow, Summer 2012, 2013 (four months total). Research, writing and presentations on my manuscript in progress, The Nuremberg Idea: Thinking Humanity in History, Law & Politics

Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg, Heidelberg Center for American Studies, Permanent Faculty Affiliate. Held a Visiting Professorship with the HCA in 2008 under the Fulbright Program and was asked to continue on with a permanent affiliation (position created for me)

Publications

Books:

Elizabeth Borgwardt. A New Deal for the World: America's Vision for Human Rights, Belknap Press of Harvard University Press, 2005; paperback 2007. Fourth printing, 2011.

- Merle Curti Book Award for Best Book in the History of Ideas, Organization of American Historians (co-winner), 2006
- Stuart L. Bernath Book Award for the Best Book on the History of U.S. Foreign Relations, Society of Historians of American Foreign Relations (co-winner), 2006
- Phi Alpha Theta (History Honor Society) Best Book on Any Historical Topic, 2006 (see awards section, below)

Roger Fisher, Andrea Kupfer Schneider, Elizabeth Borgwardt & Brian Ganson. Coping With International Conflict: A Systematic Approach to Influence in International Negotiation (Prentice Hall, 1997)(International Law & Relations textbook)

Roger Fisher, Elizabeth Borgwardt, & Andrea Kupfer Schneider. Beyond Machiavelli: Tools for Coping with Conflict (Harvard University Press, 1993); (Penguin paperback, 1996) (General interest trade book on problem-solving through negotiation, using primarily international examples; translated into seven languages; New York Times “Business Bestseller”)

Articles, Book Chapters, Reviews, Essays:

Elizabeth Borgwardt, “The Rise and Rise of the Nuremberg Principles,” in The Transformation of American Legal History: Essays in Honor of Morton J. Horwitz, vol. 2, Daniel W. Hamilton and Alfred L. Brophy eds., Harvard University Press, 2011

Reprinted in: The Human Rights Revolution: An International History, Akira Iriye William Hitchcock, and Petra Goedde eds., Oxford University Press, 2012

Elizabeth Borgwardt, “NGOs at the 1945 UN San Francisco Conference: A Contested History of ‘Human Rights . . . without discrimination,’” in Fog of War: Civil Rights in the World War II Era, Kevin Kruse and Stephen Tuck, eds., Oxford University Press, 2012

Elizabeth Borgwardt, review of Étienne Jaudel, Le procès de Tokyo: Un Nuremberg oublié for Law & History Review 29(1), Winter 2011, 306-309

Elizabeth Borgwardt, “Commerce and Complicity: Corporate Accountability for Human Rights Abuses as a Legacy of Nuremberg,” Bernath Prize Lecture, Diplomatic History 34(4), September 2010, 627-640

Elizabeth Borgwardt, “A New Deal for the Nuremberg Trial: The Limits of Law in Generating Human Rights Norms,” Law and History Review 26(3), Fall 2008: 679-705

Elizabeth Borgwardt, “Wartime Transformations in America’s Discourses of Rights,” in Bringing Human Rights Home: A History of Human Rights in the United States, (3 vols); vol. 1, From Civil Rights to Human Rights, Cynthia Soohoo, Catherine Albisa, and Martha F. Davis, editors, Greenwood/Praeger, 2008, 31-55 (awarded the Gustavus Myers Outstanding Book Award for Human Rights, 2008, see awards section, below)

Peer-reviewed contribution reprinted in the one-volume version of this work published by University of Pennsylvania Press in September 2010 as part of the series Pennsylvania Studies in Human Rights, Bert Lockwood, series editor

Elizabeth Borgwardt, “Site-Specific: The Fractured Humanity of J. Robert Oppenheimer,” featured review essay on five recent books on J. Robert Oppenheimer, Modern Intellectual History, Fall 2008,1-25

Elizabeth Borgwardt, "FDR's Four Freedoms as a Human Rights Instrument," Magazine of History, Organization of American Historians; special issue, Human Rights, 22(2), April 2008: 8-13 (appears on OUP's list of "most read Oxford articles during April 2012")

Elizabeth Borgwardt, "'When you state a moral principle you are stuck with it:' The 1941 Atlantic Charter as a Human Rights Instrument," Virginia Journal of International Law 46(3), November 2006, 501-562 (peer-reviewed symposium issue)

Elizabeth Borgwardt, "Re-Examining Nuremberg," Berkeley Journal of International Law 23(2), July 2005, 401-462. (Article contributed as part of a festschrift issue celebrating the life and work of Professor Richard Buxbaum, UC Berkeley School of Law)

Elizabeth Borgwardt, "Ideology and International Law: The Dissent of the Indian Justice at the Tokyo War Crimes Trial," chapter in Gerry Simpson, ed., War Crimes Law, vol. 2 in the series International Library of Essays in Law and Legal Theory, 2d series, General Editor Tom D. Campbell, Australian National University. (London: Ashgate Publishing, July 2004), and reprinted from the NYU Journal of International Law & Politics: 373-443 as the "leading English-language example" of scholarship on the Tokyo Trial)

Elizabeth Borgwardt, "A 'New International History' of the 1960s," Reviews in American History 32 (June 2004), 255-261, reviewing Jeremi Suri's Power & Protest

Elizabeth Borgwardt, Review of Francis A. Boyle, Foundations of World Order: The Legalist Approach to International Relations, 1898-1922, Peace & Change, 27 (October 2002), 647-654

Elizabeth Borgwardt, "You Can't Get There From Here: Negotiating Multilateral Regimes," Stanford Center on Conflict and Negotiation Working Paper No. 58, 1997. (Published working paper chosen in a Stanford-wide competition judged by Nobel laureate Kenneth Arrow et al.; see Awards section below)

Elizabeth Borgwardt, "The Modern Machiavelli: Legitimacy, Conflict, and Power in the International Legal Order," UCLA Law Review 43 (October 1995), 139-158. (Review essay on Henry Kissinger's Diplomacy)

Work in Progress

The Nuremberg Idea: 'Thinking Humanity' in History, Law & Politics, manuscript in progress, under contract with Alfred A. Knopf. A history of the idea of crimes against humanity, analyzing how "human rights" came to be the most magnetic idea of the postwar era, through an analysis of the 13 Nuremberg trials and their post-World War II legacies

Commerce and Complicity, monograph on growing trends favoring increased accountability for corporate abuses of human rights, privileging legal and political theory regarding the transformation of the corporate personality as well as the legal and political evolution of the Alien Tort Claims Act and its significance for contemporary human rights politics and institutions, with a focus on post-1980 transformations in U.S. law and politics

U.S. Human Rights Initiatives in Latin America: Rhetoric and Reality. Multilateral initiatives in Central and Latin America, with the focus on the use of law as an instrument of policy, dating back to the 19th century Pan-American Congresses through recent attempts to reinvigorate the Inter-American Court of Human Rights and the U.S. role in pan-Americanism

“Afterword: Human Rights, War Crimes, and the Legacies of 1945,” in Kurt Steiner, The Tokyo War Crimes Trial and the Progressive Development of International Law, Elizabeth Borgwardt, ed. (Stanford University Press, forthcoming, 2013)

Edited book project on the 12 so-called “subsequent” Nuremberg trials (Doctors’ trial, Industrialists’ trials, Jurists’ trial, etc), with Jonathan Bush of Columbia Law School

Book chapter on “American Anti-Imperialism as a Nationalist Movement: Law, Politics, and the Bricker Amendment Controversy of 1951-53,” edited volume from the conference “The American Anti-Imperial Tradition,” Rothermere American Institute, Oxford University, April 2011

Book chapter on “Unexpected Legacies of Nuremberg,” Essay Collection in honor of David M. Kennedy; Bruce M. Schulman, ed, under contract with Oxford University Press

Article on NGOs and the “Trusteeship” debate at the United Nations San Francisco Conference

Review of Gary Jonathan Bass, Freedom’s Battle: The Origins of Humanitarian Intervention, commissioned by Ethics and International Affairs

Review of Michael Barnett, Empire of Humanity: A History of Humanitarianism, commissioned by the American Historical Review

Education

Stanford University, Ph.D. in History, 2002. Dissertation: “An Intellectual History of the Atlantic Charter: Ideas, Institutions, and Human Rights in American Diplomacy, 1941-1946;” Best Dissertation Award (Elizabeth Spilman Rosenfield Prize); also garnered the departmental Teaching Award (see awards section, below). Advisor: David M. Kennedy

Harvard Law School, J.D. cum laude, 1990. Articles Editor, Harvard International Law Journal; Harvard Negotiation Project. Specialized in public international law; human rights; war, conflict & diplomacy. Published third year paper on the Tokyo War Crimes Trial and International Law; article reprinted in the Ashgate series International Library of Essays in Law and Legal Theory in 2004 as the “best English-language article” on the Tokyo Trial

Cambridge University (U.K.), M.Phil in International Relations, 1986. First Class Honors for thesis on the politics of food aid and the U.S. relationship with Kenya. Coursework on international law, economics, and history of political thought. Advisor: John Lonsdale, Trinity College, Cambridge

Cambridge University (U.K.), B.A. in History, 1985. Special Subjects in Afro-Asian history; thesis on the U.S Occupation of Japan; Rowing Blue

Fellowships, Prizes, and Awards

University of Chicago, Richard and Ann Pozen Professor of Human Rights (Visiting), Public lectures on the History of International Law and a mixed seminar for undergraduates and graduate students on Human Rights in Law, Politics & History offered under the auspices of the Human Rights Program, University of Chicago, Spring 2012

Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, Stanford University, Fellowship award for 2010-11. For ms in progress The Nuremberg Idea: “Thinking Humanity” in History, Law & Politics (under contract with Alfred A. Knopf); ms in progress Commerce and Complicity: Corporate Accountability for Human Rights Abuses; various other projects on law, politics, and diplomacy in transnational perspective; participated in a cross-disciplinary group of 30

James E. McCleod Faculty Appreciation Award, Arts & Sciences Division, Washington University in St Louis. One of eight faculty members university-wide recognized for “outstanding contributions to the undergraduate educational experience,” 2010

“Distinguished Graduate” Award, Noble & Greenough School, Dedham, Massachusetts. Independent secondary school; awarded by members of the corporation, November 2010; also served as first woman graduate trustee

“Faculty Appreciation Award,” Women’s Panhellenic Association, Washington University in St Louis, 2010, 2012 (one of twenty women faculty recognized)

Stuart L. Bernath Lecture Prize “recognizing excellence in research and teaching in the field of foreign relations,” awarded by the Society of Historians of American Foreign Relations, (SHAFR) 2009; Prize Lecture delivered to the Society in April 2010 and published in Diplomatic History

Fulbright Visiting Professor, University of Heidelberg, Center for American Studies. Research and teaching in human rights history, March-July 2008. Permanent affiliate since 2009

Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Bigotry and Human Rights Outstanding Book Award, for books “that advance our journeys away from bigotry.” For the edited volumes Bringing Human Rights Home: A History of Human Rights in the United States (3 vols.), Cynthia Soohoo et al., eds.; chapter in volume 1, From Civil Rights to Human Rights, “FDR’s Four Freedoms and Wartime Transformations in America’s Discourses of Rights,” 31-55, awarded December 2008

Visiting Scholar, Charles Warren Center for Studies in American History, Harvard University, 2006-07

Merle Curti Book Award (co-winner). For the most meritorious work in American History in the field of the History of Ideas, 2006 (for A New Deal for the World: America's Vision for Human Rights), Organization of American Historians

Stuart L. Bernath Book Award (co-winner), for the best book on the History of U.S. Foreign Relations, 2006, for New Deal for the World, Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations

Best Book Award, Any Historical Topic, 2006, for New Deal for the World, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society

Robert F. Kennedy Foundation Book Award Finalist, for books which “most faithfully and forcefully reflect Robert Kennedy’s purposes and ideals,” 2006, for New Deal for the World (one of eight finalists; award to John Hope Franklin)

Gustavus Myers Center Outstanding Book Award, Honorable Mention, 2006, for New Deal for the World

Nominee, Pulitzer Prize in History, 2006, for New Deal for the World (120 nominees total)

“Student Choice” Teaching Award, Associated Students of the University of Utah. One of six recipients of this University-wide, student-administered teaching award, 2005

Distinguished Lecturer, Organization of American Historians. Appointed by the president of the OAH as one of 200 “outstanding historians . . . who have made major contributions to the many fields of U.S. History” (OAH website); commissioned to give a series of lectures on recent work, with honoraria to be donated to the OAH; since 2004

Visiting Scholar, Center for the Study of Law & Society, University of California at Berkeley. Interdisciplinary center for research in history, law, political science, and sociology. 2003-04

“Outstanding Achievement” Award for Faculty, Theta Phi Chapter of Delta Delta Delta Sorority, University of Utah. One of 16 faculty members chosen on a university-wide basis for contribution to the academic excellence of the sorority’s members, 2004

Elizabeth Spillman Rosenfield Dissertation Prize, Stanford University Department of History. Best dissertation award, to the history doctoral candidate “whose written work is honorable not simply for originality in research but also for clarity and elegance in writing,” 2003

Samuel Golieb Fellow in Legal History, New York University School of Law. One of six fellows in Law and History; presented four chapters of my dissertation, 2001-02

Stuart L. Bernath Dissertation Research Award, Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations, 1999

Littleton-Griswold Dissertation Research Award for Legal History, American Historical Association, 1998

Ford Foundation “Human Rights” Fellow. Selected to participate in a “dissertation retreat” for 15 junior scholars of Human Rights, sponsored by the University of California at Berkeley Human Rights Center and UC Berkeley Department of International and Area Studies, April 1998

Goldsmith Award for Best Paper on Dispute Resolution, Stanford Center on Conflict and Negotiation, Honorable Mention, 1997

Award for Excellence in First-Time History Teaching (Teaching Assistant Award), Department of History, Stanford University, 1996

Stanford University Department Fellowship, Department of History, Stanford University. 1993-95; 1998-99

MacArthur Affiliated Fellow, Center for International Security and Cooperation, Stanford University, 1994-95

Graduate Research Fellow, Stanford Center on Conflict and Negotiation. Twelve Stanford doctoral candidates selected for interdisciplinary colloquium and scholarship award, 1993-94

Danforth Certificate for Excellence in Teaching, Harvard University (now the Bok Certificate; awarded twice), for work as Head Teaching Fellow for Roger Fisher’s 200+-student undergraduate course on International Conflict. Gave several lectures in the course and later published the course materials as a textbook with Prentice Hall in 1995

Additional Professional Experience

Associate Professor of History without Tenure to Associate Professor of History, Washington University in St Louis, early tenure effective July 1, 2008

Assistant Professor of History to Associate Professor of History, University of Utah, 2002-2006, early tenure and promotion effective July 1, 2006

Mel Brooks’ “The Producers,” a film by Susan Stroman, Sony Pictures, December 2005; “Broadway theater patron circa 1959”

Research Assistant to Professor David M. Kennedy, McLachlan Professor of American History, Stanford University. Spot research for footnotes on Kennedy’s Pulitzer-prizewinning book, Freedom From Fear: The American People in Depression and War, 1929-1945 (Oxford University Press, 1999). RA to Professor Jack N. Rakove, Coe Professor of American Studies, Stanford University. Research on jury trials for Rakove’s Pulitzer-prizewinning book, Original Meanings: Politics and Ideas in the Making of the Constitution (Knopf, 1996)

Acting Assistant Professor/ Lecturer on Law, Stanford Law School. Took a leave of absence from my doctoral program to teach a section of Contracts and an elective on Negotiation before starting my Dissertation, 1995-96; also taught Negotiation as a Lecturer in 1994 and 1991

Teaching Assistant, Stanford University, Department of History. TA for (1) David Kennedy's survey course on 20th century America; (2) Jack Rakove's survey course on Colonial and Revolutionary America; (3) Rakove's seminar on Rights and Rights-Talk in American History, 1994-96

Litigation Associate, Coblenz, Cahen, McCabe & Breyer, San Francisco. Specialized in complex commercial litigation and mediation in a 30-attorney firm, 1991-93

Law Clerk to the Hon. Cecil F. Poole, Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, San Francisco, 1990-91

Lecturer on Law, University of California at Berkeley. Taught Legal Methods during my Ninth Circuit clerkship, Spring 1991

Summer Associate, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, Washington DC; Ropes & Gray, Boston, Mass, Summer 1989 and 1990

Teaching Fellow, Harvard College and Harvard Law School. Award-winning Teaching Fellow for Professor Roger Fisher's undergraduate course on international conflict; section leader for Fisher's law school Negotiation Workshop, 1988-90

Associate, Harvard Negotiation Project, Harvard Law School. Developed teaching materials for courses on international relations and conflict resolution for Professor Roger Fisher; co-taught week-long negotiation training workshops for practicing attorneys and business professionals as part of Harvard's continuing legal education program. Consulted to Government of El Salvador and Salvadorean FMLN regarding United Nations mediation efforts; facilitated negotiations; provided negotiation training. Consulted to United Nations Office of Special Political Affairs regarding mediation of the Cyprus conflict, 1988-90

Case Writer for the Harvard Negotiation Project at Harvard Law School. Co-author of the crisis simulation "The Zalada Crisis," two-party negotiation between representatives of a former colonial power and an independent former colony over the release of two arrested embassy workers; edited and revised numerous other cases, 1989

Selected as a Foreign Service Officer, U.S. Department of State (declined), 1990

Teaching

Survey Courses: History of International Law; Legal and Constitutional History in Comparative Perspective; International Relations and the History of Ideas (18th-20th centuries); U.S. History in Comparative Perspective

Seminars and Elective Courses: Law & Legal Theory: Debating the Rule of Law in the 20th century; Human Rights: Crimes against Humanity in History, Law & Politics; Laws of War and War Crimes Trials; History of Transnational Governance; Historical Perspectives on War, Conflict, and Diplomacy; Comparative Constitutionalisms; Comparative Conceptions of Citizenship; Human Rights and Globalization in Historical Perspective

Dissertations and Masters Theses. Committee member for Tanya Roth's dissertation on women in the military; Committee member for Daniel Scallet's dissertation on the Second Seminole War; Committee member for Matthew Stewart's dissertation on the memory of trauma in territorial and Civil War Kansas; Committee member for Ethan Bennett's General Examinations and dissertation in progress on the role of forts in 19th-century military history; External Committee member for doctoral dissertation on NGOs and corporate human rights abuses for Bryan Knapp, Brown University; External Committee member for doctoral dissertation in creative writing (historical novel based on the life of Cold War spy Elizabeth Bentley); advisor for masters thesis on human rights issues raised by violence against homosexuals; advisor for three human rights-related masters theses in the Masters in American Studies Program at Heidelberg University; Masters in International Studies at Ohio University; committee member for two additional masters theses at the University of Utah

Advisor for Undergraduate Honors Theses. Advisor for Senior Honors Theses on war crimes trials, Vietnam-era U.S. propaganda and protest, U.S. military strategy vis-à-vis Soviet satellite nations, comparative treatment of U.S. and British propaganda in World Wars I and II, British policies in mandate Palestine; second reader for numerous additional theses, including in Anthropology and Philosophy; advised three Senior Honors Theses at the University of Utah

Invited Lectures and Seminars; Keynote Speeches

Invited Speaker, German Historical Institute, Washington DC, invited for May 2013

Keynote Speaker, Model UN Conference, Washington University in St Louis, invited for October 2012

Invited Speaker, Woodrow Wilson Center for Scholars, Washington, DC, invited for September 2012

Richard and Ann Pozen Endowed Lecture/Public Law & Legal Theory Workshop, University of Chicago, "Commerce and Complicity: Corporate Accountability for Human Rights Abuses under International Law," May 2012

Richard and Ann Pozen Endowed Lecture, University of Chicago, "Constitutionalizing Human Rights: The Rise and Rise of the Nuremberg Principles," April 2012

Richard and Ann Pozen Endowed Lecture, University of Chicago, "The Transformation of the Modern Human Rights Regime," April 2012

James Jones Endowed Lecture in Interdisciplinary World War II Studies, Departments of History and English, Eastern Illinois University, November 2011

C. Mildred Thompson Endowed Lecture, campus-wide and public presentation, sponsored by the Department of International Studies, Vassar College, April 2011

Presenter/Seminar Leader, Department of State, Bureau of International Organization Affairs, invited a to present a series of briefings on the history of international organizations for Deputy Assistant Secretary Suzanne Nossel and other senior staff, Winter/Spring 2012

Presenter/Seminar Leader, Working Group in International Relations and International Law, Roberta Buffet Center for International and Comparative Studies, Karen Alter et al, convenors, Northwestern University, November 2010

OAH Distinguished Lecture, “Nuremberg Revisited,” Minnesota Historical Society, St Paul, Minnesota, November 2010

OAH Distinguished Lecture, “Commerce and Complicity,” Annual Peace & Conflict Studies Lecture Series, University of Kansas, March 2010

OAH Distinguished Lecture, “The Mad Pursuit of a World Bill of Rights,” Mershon Center for International Security Studies Event Series, Ohio State University, November 2009

Invited Expert, Crimes Against Humanity Initiative, Whitney R. Harris World Law Institute, Washington University in St Louis, April 2009

OAH Distinguished Lecture, Historical Perspectives Lecture Series on “Waging War, Waging Peace,” Center for History and Social Change, University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, March 2009

Keynote Speaker, University of Chicago, Annual Symposium on Human Rights and History, University of Chicago Human Rights Program, February 2009

Presenter/Seminar Leader on my second project on the idea of crimes against humanity at the Nuremberg trials, Legal History Colloquium at Harvard Law School, Jed Shugerman, convenor, November 2008

Presenter/Seminar Leader on my crimes against humanity project, American Studies Seminar, Oxford, UK, Stephen Tuck, convenor, November 2008

Presenter/Seminar Leader on my crimes against humanity project, American Studies Seminar, Cambridge University, UK, Anthony Badger, convenor, November 2008

Fulbright Distinguished Lectures, Germany. Delivered presentations on my recent scholarship at Universities of Heidelberg, Frankfurt, Leipzig, Nürnberg-Erlangen, Münster, and Trier a part of my appointment to the Center for American Studies at the University of Heidelberg, Germany for Spring and Summer 2008

OAH Distinguished Lecture, “International Justice as a Dimension of Global Governance,” OAH Distinguished Lecture, invited by Grand Valley State College Honors College, January 2008

Presenter/Seminar Leader on my second project on the idea of crimes against humanity at the Nuremberg trials, co-sponsored by the International History Seminar and Charles Warren Center for Studies in American History, May 2007

OAH Distinguished Lecture, “Global Peace and Warfare in the 20th century,” Conference on “Constitutional Connections,” sponsored by the Teaching American History Project, Vancouver, Washington, March 2007

Lecturer/Discussion Leader on the New Deal for the World book, invited by University of Chicago Policy History Group; Harvard International History Graduate Seminar; Faculty Colloquium of the Chicago-Kent College of Law; University of Connecticut Human Rights Center; Stanford Law School Legal History Colloquium; Columbia University Political History-International Relations Joint Seminar; Ohio University Contemporary History Institute; University of Wisconsin-Madison Human Rights Initiative and Department of Political Science

OAH Distinguished Lecture, January 2007, “The Genesis of the Modern Human Rights Regime,” Keynote Speech for observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Utah State University

Presenter, paper on NGOs and the 1945 San Francisco Conference, Shelby Cullom Davis Center, Princeton University, September 2006

Keynote Address, “Bringing Human Rights Home,” Conference at Columbia University School of Law, June 2006

Inaugural Lecture, First Annual Sandy and Anne Dolowitz Lecture on Human Rights, International Studies Program, University of Utah, April 2006

Paul V. McNutt Endowed Lecture/Keynote Address, Workshop on the History of Human Rights, Center for the Study of History and Memory, Department of History, Indiana University (convened by Department Chair John Bodnar), March 2006

Lecturer, “Turning Points in History” series, Granite School District, Salt Lake City, Utah. Presentation on Japanese internment during World War II, September 2005

Lecturer, “Nuremberg Revisited.” Public Lecture in the Tanner Lectures on Human Values Series (informal lunchtime series for junior faculty), Stanford University, June 2002

Presenter, “The Promise of the Atlantic Charter and the Transformation of Human Rights Ideas.” Paper presented to the Faculty International History Seminar, Department of History and Department of Political Science, Stanford University, November 2000 (only graduate student presenter in this faculty workshop series)

Panel Papers and Presentations; Guest Lectures

“Commerce and Complicity: Corporate Accountability for Human Rights Abuses as a Legacy of Nuremberg,” panel on “Human Rights in Recent History: Local, National, and Transnational Perspectives,” panel accepted for the American Historical Association Annual Conference, New Orleans, 2013

“New Directions: Ideology, Transnationalism, and the Role of the U.S. in the World,” Roundtable Discussant, Society for U.S. Intellectual History, invited for November 2012, New York

Conference on “Law and Human Rights in Global History,” University of Michigan, Raymond Grew and Robert Donia, convenors, March 2012

Conference on “American Anti-Imperialisms,” Oxford University, Rothermere American Institute, Ian Tyrell and Jay Sexton, convenors, April 2011

“Domestic Internalization of Human Rights Norms,” Conference on “Cultures of Transatlanticism: The Impact of Law and Judges,” Heidelberg Center for American Studies, Heidelberg University, February 2010

“Writing Human Rights History,” Roundtable Discussant, American Historical Association Annual Conference, San Diego, January 2010

“The Bricker Amendment Controversy and Unexpected Legacies of Nuremberg,” conference on “The Decline of the West? The Fate of the Atlantic Community after the Cold War,” University of Pennsylvania and the German Historical Institute, Philadelphia, October 2009

“Constitutionalizing the Nuremberg Charter: Nuremberg, Tokyo, and the Afterlife of Crimes against Humanity,” Conference on “The Nuremberg Trials: Taking Stock,” Documentation Center Nazi Party Rally Grounds and Bavarian State Center for Civic Education, Nürnberg, Germany, October 2009

“The Rise and Rise of the United Nations’ Nuremberg Principles,” Panel on Sovereignty and Citizenship at War, American Historical Association Annual Conference, New York, January 2009

“Historical Attitudes of the United States toward International Law,” International Law Weekend of the American Branch of the International Law Association, New York Bar Association, October 2008

“Nuremberg and the Limits of Law,” conference on “Human Rights in the 20th century: Concepts and Conflicts,” convened by Stefan Hoffmann, Zentrum für Zeithistorische Forschung, Berlin, June 2008

“FDR’s Four Freedoms and U.S. in the World,” symposium to honor the scholarly legacies of Professor David M. Kennedy, Stanford University, March 2008

“U.S. War in Iraq and Afghanistan: Historical Perspectives,” Roundtable Discussant, Organization of American Historians Annual Conference, Minneapolis, March 2008

“Human Rights Norms and Institutions: The Nuremberg Experience,” conference on Human Rights, International Law, and Refugees in 20th century Europe,” Rice University, March 2008

Conference on “The Liberal Foreign Policy Tradition: Pluses, Problems, and Prospects,” speaking on the legacies of Woodrow Wilson and Franklin Roosevelt, sponsored by the Woodrow Wilson Foundation and Center for International Studies, MIT, Washington, DC, January 2008

“‘All the Clauses in the Preamble to the Constitution are worth fighting for:’ Social and Economic Rights in America’s World War II,” campus-wide initiative for Human Rights Scholarship, Department of Political Science, University of Wisconsin-Madison, January 2008

“Crimes Against Humanity,” Conference on the Idea of Humanity in an Age of Globalization: An Intercultural Dialogue, City University of Hong Kong, jointly sponsored with the Institute for the Advanced Study of the Humanities (KWI), Essen, Germany, November 2007

“The 1950 Nuremberg Principles and the Process of ‘Constitutionalizing’ International Agreements,” conference on “Ruling the World? Constitutionalism, International Law, and Global Governance,” Jeff Dunoff, convener, December 2007

“The Nuremberg Idea of Crimes Against Humanity,” interdisciplinary conference on “Law, War, and History” at Boalt Hall School of Law, UC Berkeley, convened by Harry Scheiber, February 2007

“All the Clauses in the Preamble to the Constitution are worth fighting for’: Social and Economic Rights in America’s World War II,” Presidential Session on Human Rights to honor the scholarly legacies of the late Kenneth Cmiel, American Historical Association Annual Conference, Atlanta, Georgia, January 2007

“The Atlantic Charter as a Human Rights Instrument,” conference on “The Life and Legacy of George Lister: Reconsidering Human Rights, Democracy, and U.S. Foreign Policy,” at the Rapoport Center for Human Rights and Justice, UT Austin School of Law, December 2006

“War Powers: War, the Presidency and the American State,” Roundtable Discussant, American Society for Legal History Annual Conference, Baltimore, November 2006

“The New Deal Discourse of Human Rights, 1941-1945,” Panel on “Developmental and Political Implications of the New Deal,” Social Science History Association, Minneapolis, November 2006

“Historical Perspectives on Human Rights: Rethinking the Nuremberg Trials,” Hinckley Forum, Hinckley Institute of Politics, University of Utah, April 2006

Guest Lecturer on Historical Perspectives on the Modern International Human Rights Regime for professor Bruce Landesman’s course on International Justice, Department of Philosophy, University of Utah, November 2005

“Resituating Nuremberg.” Panel presentation in honor of the 75th birthday of Professor Richard Buxbaum, Boalt Hall School of Law, UC Berkeley, April 2005

Selected through a competitive process to participate in a two-day conference on “The United States and Global Human Rights” at the Rothermere American Institute, Oxford University November 2004. Commentator: Rosemary Foot, Oxford University

Presenter at the Sokol Colloquium on New Scholarship in International Law, University of Virginia School of Law, October 2004. Three junior scholars of international law are nominated annually to receive public comments on new research, with the resulting paper published by the Virginia Journal of International Law

“Resituating Nuremberg as a New Deal Institution.” Paper presented at the Annual Conference of the American Historical Association, Washington, D.C., January 2004. Commentator: Stanley N. Katz, Princeton University

“‘Once you state a moral principle you are stuck with it’: Churchill, Roosevelt, and the 1941 Atlantic Charter as a Human Rights Instrument,” presentation to the Center for British Studies, University of California, Berkeley, May 2004

“The Nuremberg Trial, Legitimacy, and International Justice,” presentation to the Center for the Study of Law & Society, University of California, Berkeley, April 2004

“The 1941 Atlantic Charter as a Human Rights Instrument,” presentation to faculty colloquium, Boalt Hall School of Law, University of California at Berkeley, October 2003

“Nuremberg Revisited: Historical Perspectives on Human Rights.” Remarque Center on European Politics, Department of History, New York University, October 2003

“Human Rights Out in the Cold: The ‘Four Freedoms’ in the Aftermath World War II,” conference on “Law and the ‘Disappearance’ of Class in 20th-century America,” Sarah Barringer Gordon, convenor, University of Pennsylvania, November 2002

“The Four Freedoms, the Atlantic Charter, and the Reinvigoration of U.S. Rights Discourse in the World War II Era.” Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Society for Legal History, Princeton, NJ, October 2000

“Politics and Culture at the Tokyo Trial.” Guest Lecture, Seminar on International Criminal Tribunals, Stanford Law School, October 2000. (Lecturer Alison Danner)

“Human Rights and the Negotiation of the United Nations Charter.” Guest Lecture, Introductory course of Human Rights, Department of Political Science, University of California at Berkeley, April 2000. (Lecturer Bronwyn Leebaw)

“The Foundations of Postwar Internationalism: U.S. War Aims, the ‘Four Freedoms,’ and the Projection of the New Deal State, 1941-1946.” Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Amherst Working Group on Law, Culture & the Humanities, Georgetown University Law Center, March 2000. Commentator: Mark Tushnet, Georgetown University Law Center

“Imagining the Postwar World: A Cultural Perspective on American Internationalism After the Two World Wars.” Paper presented at the annual conference of the American Historical Association, Chicago, IL, January 2000. Commentator, T.J. Jackson Lears, Rutgers University

“Understanding the Genesis of the Modern Human Rights Regime,” Social Science Seminar Series, Center for International Security and Cooperation, Stanford University, October 1999

“The World the War (and Depression) Made: Projecting the New Deal Regulatory State in the Post-World War II Era.” Paper presented at the Annual Conference of the Society of Historians of American Foreign Relations, Princeton, NJ, June 1999. Commentator: Daniel T. Rodgers, Princeton University

“International Law at a Grotian Moment.” Invited presentation, “New Rights for a New Millennium? A Graduate Conference on New Scholarship in International Human Rights,” sponsored by the Human Rights Center, University of California at Berkeley and the Center for International Security and Cooperation, Stanford University, March 1999

“Coping with International Conflict.” Guest lectures and review of negotiation case simulation, interdisciplinary survey course on Peace Studies, Stanford University, Spring 1999 (co-author of case)

Academic Service

Advisor, Undergraduate Legal Studies Program, Washington University in St. Louis, since 2008

Service Committees, Department of History, Washington University in St. Louis: Graduate Committee; Faculty Colloquium Committee; ad hoc Committees on Tenure and Promotion; Search Committee for Creative Non-Fiction (Department of English); Mentor and Annual Review participant for two junior faculty members; History Coordinator for University College Continuing Studies Program

Editorial Board Member, Law & History Review, appointed for a 3-year term from Spring 2009; renewed 2012

Chair, Selection Committee, Holt-Hogan-Bemis Fellowship Committee, Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations, 2009-10; committee member for 2007-09

External Evaluator for Tenure and Promotion, Rice University, University of Kansas, SUNY Albany; College of Staten Island

Chair, panel on “The Global Dimensions of U.S. Power: Rethinking Liberal Internationalism at the Midcentury,” accepted for the American Historical Association Annual Conference, New Orleans, January 2013

Chair and Commentator, panel on “Forging and Fracturing a Transnational Community: Human Rights Networks in the Twentieth Century,” American Historical Association Annual Conference, Chicago, January 2012

Commentator on a presentation by Andrew Preston, “The Religious Influence in American War and Diplomacy: A History,” John C. Danforth Center on Religion and Politics, Washington University in St Louis, March 2012

Commentator on a presentation by William Charles Inboden, “The Prophetic Conflict: Reinhold Niebuhr and the Second World War,” John C. Danforth Center on Religion and Politics, Washington University in St Louis, October 2011

Commentator, panel on “Disputed Internationalisms and Debates over the U.S. Role in the World During the Progressive Era,” Organization of American Historians Annual Conference, Houston, March 2011

Commentator, panel on “The United States and the Rediscovery of ‘Human Rights,’” Organization of American Historians Annual Conference, Washington DC, April 2010

Chair, panel on “New Perspectives on the War of 1812,” Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations Annual Conference, Washington DC, June 2009

Discussant, 11th Stanford-University of California Law & Colonialism Symposium, “Trafficking in Women and Children After the ‘End of Slavery’: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives from Africa and Beyond,” Stanford University, March 2009

Discussant, symposium on “The Tokyo Trial and After: New Interpretations, New Lives,” Joint Center for East Asian Studies, Washington University in St Louis, February 2009

Selection Committee Chair for the Ellis Hawley Book Award (for the best book-length study of the political economy, politics, or institutions of the United States in its domestic or international affairs from the Civil War to the present), Organization of American Historians, 2007-08

External Evaluator, “Exploring Human Rights Across the Humanities,” National Endowment for the Humanities Curriculum Grant, University of Iowa Center for Human Rights, 2008-09

Discussant, “Terrorism and Containment,” Paper by Ian Shapiro, Yale University Department of Political Science and MacMillan Center for International Studies, Washington University in St Louis Political Theory Working Group

Commentator, Panel on “Administrative Law and the Reconstruction of States in the U.S., Europe, and Japan,” American Society for Legal History, Ottawa, November 2008

Chair and Commentator, Panel on “Historical Aspects of International Participation in the Nuremberg Trials: The Soviet Role,” conference on “The Nuremberg Trial and Its Policy Consequences Today,” Bowling Green State University, March 2007

Chair and Commentator, Policy History Conference, Charlottesville, Virginia, panel on “Multidisciplinary Inquiries into the Conditions of Success in Policy-Making in the US,” June 2006

Panelist and Discussant, “The U.S. Constitution: Transnational Resonances,” Tanner Lecture on Human Values, Tanner Humanities Center, University of Utah, March 2006

Co-Presenter of historically-oriented programming for federally-mandated observation of Constitution Day. Broadcast on local National Public Radio affiliate KCPW, September 2005

Convenor and Participant, Roundtable Discussion on “New Scholarship in International History” with other authors of forthcoming books on human rights: Mark Bradley, Kenneth Cmiel, Willy Forbath, Risa Goluboff. Law & Society Association Annual Meeting, Las Vegas, Nevada, June 2005

Commentator for a panel on new developments in the Law of the Sea for the annual meeting of the American Society for Legal History; also invited for a special early session of ASLH members on Empires, Decolonization, and Human Rights. Austin, Texas, October 2004

Service Committees, Department of History, University of Utah: Strategic Planning Committee, 2004-06; Teaching Committee 2002-05; Undergraduate Committee, 2004-06; Graduate Committee, 2005-06; Wilson Lecture Committee, 2005-06

Faculty Presenter and Discussion Leader, Graduate Student Advisory Council, University of Utah. Presentations and follow-up advice on scholarly publishing for humanities graduate students, September 2005

Faculty Advisor, Pre-Law Advising and State Department Foreign Service Exam, University of Utah. Advised at least 150 students per year on the law school application process, wrote over 70 letters of recommendation per season; also ran review sessions preparing students for the Written and Oral Foreign Service Examinations. 2002-06

“Public History;” Nonacademic Service

History Jury Member, The Pulitzer Prizes. One of three jury members on a panel reporting to the Pulitzer Board, 2010-2011

Playwright, “The Art of Forgiveness,” Jewish Women’s Theater of Los Angeles, Salon Series, to be performed on tour starting May 2013; based on diaries I kept during my Fulbright in Heidelberg

Radio Commentator on “The International Criminal Court at 10,” June 2012; “Ideology and Foreign Policy,” April 2012, on “The Scholar’s Circle,” KPFK (Los Angeles)

Featured Author, Civil Rights Book Club, Sponsored by the Leadership Council of the Conference on Civil Rights, January 2009 (electronic forum for responding to readers’ questions on New Deal for the World)

Featured Author, “Roosevelt Reading Festival,” Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum. One of twelve authors invited to present new work on the Roosevelt era at a symposium honoring the 125th anniversary of FDR’s birth, June 2007

Book Talks on New Deal for the World at Politics and Prose Booksellers, Washington, DC; Labyrinth Books, New York City; Harvard Bookstore, Cambridge, Mass; Sam Weller’s Independent Bookstore, Salt Lake City; Book TV/C-Span2 (Program ID: 8462)

Radio Commentator on Constitution Day September 2005; on New Deal for the World and American Multilateralism, April 2006, NPR affiliate KCPW, Salt Lake City

Founding Board Member, “Crossroads” Advocacy Project for Homeless Youth, San Francisco, 1999

Resident Fellow, Mirrielees House, Stanford University. Director of a dormitory of 286 undergraduates. Responsible for academic programming and counseling; hired and managed a staff of 11; set up internal messaging systems and taught workshops for undergraduates on mediation skills, 1996-99

Editorial, The New York Times, with Douglas Stone, “Hang Hussein? A Big Mistake,” February 27, 1991

Editorial, The Los Angeles Times, with Wayne Davis, “Mideast Peace and One Deft Question,” February 25, 1988

Trustee, Noble & Greenough School, Dedham, Mass. Grade 7-12 independent secondary school. Served on Finance, Academic Excellence Committees, 1988-90

Languages

Read and speak French; reading knowledge of German, Italian, and Spanish

Professional Affiliations

American Society for Legal History; American Society for International Law; Law & Society Association; Law, Culture, and the Humanities Association; NOMOS: The American Society for Political and Legal Philosophy; American Historical Association; Organization of American Historians; Society of Historians of American Foreign Relations; American Political Science Association; International Studies Association; Berkshire Conference of Women Historians; Social Science History Association; Policy History Association; American Bar Association; Member of the California Bar

References Available on Request